

Larick Writers' Group

"The scariest moment is always just before you start."

Stephen King

The Larick Writers Group is for anyone interested in creative writing. We meet fortnightly and support each other to get writing or keep writing. Some of us are new to writing, others are more experienced. None of us bite.

Sessions are informal, so how often you attend and which sessions you attend is up to you.

Writing Essentials course

If you would like to learn or improve your writing skills we have a short, informal, skills based course for those interested in writing short stories, novels or drama. Six evening sessions, Sept - Feb. If you don't already have a project, we can help you start one. Course sessions alternate with Submission Sessions.

Submission Sessions

Submission sessions are dedicated to supporting writers with their works in progress. Writers submit pieces for the group to read and offer constructive feedback. Submissions can be prose, drama or poetry.

Sessions are FREE and run on Thursday evenings 7 - 9pm (Sept on / dates to be confirmed) at the Larick Centre, Tayport.

To sign up or find out more contact Simon Little - simon@kinbank.org
M:07967634290